EDITORIAL

It seems to have been a quiet two months in Remenham. There are few past events on which to report this time, but I am sure we are all conscious that the very busy season is about to begin. The first event is The Henley Boat Races, which fall on Easter Day this year, and again an intrepid team of parishioners will be serving teas to raise money for our church.

At the beginning of May there is the 10th Henley Arts Trail, and a number of our own local artists will feature in what is becoming an important part of the 'cultural landscape'. Look out for the signs on Remenham Hill and Upper Culham in particular.

As you will see from the Parish Council report, a number of comments have been received on The Neighbourhood Plan, and everyone is encouraged to comment further during the consultation period that will now follow. You can access the plan via the website - which, as you will see, is proving increasingly popular and effective.

I have been able to include a couple of Community Notices in this issue - news of the Open Spaces Society Photographic competition and how to deal with Rogue Traders. How lovely it would be to see some entries in the photographic competition featuring some of our own beautiful open spaces.

There are rumours of a possible Thespians revival later in the year! It is too soon to get excited about this, but if anyone has been considering volunteering it's not too late.

Finally, don't forget to vote on 7 May!

ARTICLES FOR THE NEWSLETTER

Do please keep sending any interesting/topical items for possible inclusion in the Newsletter to the Editor, Felicity Rutland, preferably by email to newsletter@remenhamparish.org.uk.

Space permitting (and subject to receiving contributions) the occasional articles on 'Remenhamisences' and 'Miscellaneous Village Information' will continue, as will 'The Remenham Interview'. It is also hoped to continue 'News from the Archive', which many long-standing local residents (and some of the newcomers) clearly much appreciate.

If you are interested in being part of an informal editorial team please contact the Editor. The editorial team reserves the right to edit, amend, précis or reject articles, and those included in the Newsletter do not necessarily represent the views of the Editor.

FROM THE RECTORY

Throughout March and April we are keeping in the Church the two great seasons of Lent and Easter. Lent poses the important question of 'Who do you think Jesus is?' followed by the equally important statement and question, 'In the light of what he did for you, what are you going to do for him?'

So those are the questions I invite you to consider. Who do you think Jesus is? Just a good man whose teachings serve to help us live a 'good life' – whatever that means? Or a charlatan whose followers from then until now have all been desperately and convincingly duped? Or perhaps you hold him to be someone important, the Son of God even, but he's only to be taken out on Sundays or when there's a wedding, baptism or funeral, dusted off and then put back in the cupboard where he can't do any damage and certainly cannot make any demands on me and my life.

Strangely in my forty plus years as a clergyman, I've heard all these and more – from Church people. And I've certainly been acquainted with church people who think that's OK. God's in his heaven and all's right with the world – as long as God stays in his heaven and doesn't impinge on ME.

The truth is that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of the Living God, who became a man for us, who taught and suffered and died and was buried and who rose again so that we might be able to share the unimaginable and wonderful life he had in the beginning with the Father. And when you put it like that, it seems a bit of a waste just to bring him out when WE think he's needed and then put him back again where he belongs – a million miles away from our day-to-day lives!

Think about it!

With my love and prayers this Lent and Eastertide

NEIGHBOURHOOD PLAN

The draft Neighbourhood Plan was presented to the attendees at the Website Launch in December and can be seen under the Remenham Parish Council tab on the website - <http://www.remenhamparish.org.uk/remenham-parish-council/neighbourhood-plan>. Comments are welcomed and a number have already been received - see Parish Council report on pages ????? All further comments welcome to clerk@remenhamparish.org.uk. The process of consultation will take place over the next year, including a questionnaire to all parishioners.

REMENHAM PARISH COUNCIL

Precept and Council Tax

Both the Parish council and the Borough Council decided not to increase the precept and council tax, but there is a small increase for the Police.

Borough Council

Given that the General election effectively started in January, there is little happening other than housekeeping. My Borough responsibilities have diminished; the project I was working on demonstrated that there was not a need for a Council Tax increase. I have also resigned from the Local Authority Trading Companies, where I have been Chairman. I continue to be the Chairman of the Conservative Group at Wokingham.

Neighbourhood Plan

We rolled out the neighbourhood plan as a draft. It is on the website. Please look at it:- <http://www.remenhamparish.org.uk/remenham-parish-council/neighbourhood-plan/>. It is as a very preliminary draft for comment and consultation. The timetable is for consultation during 2015 and if still relevant to take it to referendum May 2016.

We have had some comments which are summarised in brief at the end of this report, but we would appreciate more before we issue another draft

Individual Elector Registration

Following the introduction of Individual Elector Registration (IER) in June 2014 there have been many changes to the Registration process. If unsure please check that you are on the electoral register with Wokingham Borough Council (WBC) Electoral Services. 00189 9746521 or you can go online to register www.gov.uk/register-to-vote (National Insurance number needed).

Trains and Planes

Timetable changes, electrification, Heathrow and Crossrail will significantly change the train service on the Henley branch line particularly for Wargrave residents. Whilst there are threats, there are considerable longer term benefits with rail connections to Heathrow and Canary Wharf.

With demand growing at 6% pa the future is secure. Station usage figures for 2013/14 were Henley 771,838, Shiplake 89,240, Wargrave 92,298 and Twyford 1,361,892 plus 637,571 interchangers at Twyford. Without a branch line Twyford would be swamped and car parking made impossible.

There are several debates which are running concurrently and which have competing priorities. The decision makers are Network Rail, Department of Transport and Great Western Rail. WBC is a statutory consultee with some weight; I will be vigilant to ensure that responses reflect our residents' wishes. Our MP, Theresa May, has also involved herself in protecting services to and from Twyford once Crossrail arrives.

The Western Route Study (WRS) suggested "The primary constraint on the.....Henley-on-Thames branch is the running time need for a train to complete a round trip" and has suggested "reductions in the number of intermediate calls" (Wargrave) to achieve two trains per hour (twice that currently), but as electric trains accelerate quicker this consideration could be avoided.

Electrification needs ideally to happen concurrently with the main line; it may be delayed.

The imminent timetable change referred to in the Henley Standard has been postponed sine die.

The progressive withdrawal of the through services from Henley-on-Thames to and from Paddington has been a consistent theme in the Great Western Route Utilisation Strategy (RUS) issued in March 2010 and the London & South East RUS issued in July 2011. The Long Term Planning Process (LTPP), of which the Western Route Study is one component, has superseded the RUS programme. So, sadly, the proposed reduction of through services has been forecast for some years.

WBC submitted its response to the WRS in 2014 with a clarification in January emphasising that WBC considers that all services on the branch must continue to call at Wargrave. WBC would hope that electric services together with some line speed enhancement will enable a robust two trains per hour service to operate.

WBC reiterated that it had had significant correspondence on the issue of the through services and the relevant councillors have lobbied to press for their retention. The through services are greatly valued for their convenience and the current journey times to Paddington. Their retention is seen as essential by the branch line users and, while WBC appreciates the constraints on the GWML (Great Western Main Line) and the future pressures on capacity, WBC considers that a timetabling solution should be examined to allow through services to continue.

The greater the representation of local opinion the better, please make your voice known by writing directly Network Rail, join Wargrave Users Group (if you use Wargrave) by emailing philip@brandmasters.co.uk and the Henley Branch Line Users Group henleybranchusegroup@gmail.com. Please copy me and keep me in the loop. The Henley Branch Users Group wishes to represent the branch line as a whole and Wargrave Users Group, just Wargrave. Both would have increased weight if properly constituted.

- Agree that the NP should be accurate, informed, meaningful and relevant
- Confirm the input of residents and local businesses will be invited

REMENHAM WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

January Meeting

January heralds the golden jubilee year of the W.I. movement and the President Judy Palmer told members of the planned celebrations. In April the centenary baton, which is travelling the entire country, will arrive in Berkshire. The Thames Group, which includes Remenham, will give a welcome lunch.

Then Major Paul Whittle gave an absorbing talk (accompanied by stunning slides) of a 1200 mile tour of the reclusive country of Myanmar (Burma) a sovereign state in South East Asia. Often travelling by splendid restored Vintage steam trains, the land of 'green and gold' offers magnificent religious sites – including gigantic reclining Buddhas, mountain top settlements, plus thousands of gold plated minarets and spires with a backdrop of beautiful scenery.

Major Whittle's fees go towards helping several children's charities in Burma and India, also towards essential building and desperately needed wells. He is a very busy man; he told members he gave 127 talks in 2014! He was warmly applauded and thanked by the President.

A delicious tea was served and enjoyed ending a very good meeting.

This is the 10th year of the Henley Arts Trail, and takes place over the first May bank holiday. Entry to all the venues is free and there are also demonstrations and workshops.

Since its inception in 2006 the Henley Arts Trail has grown into a regular feature of the cultural and social calendar of the area. The Grand Opening is at The Fire Station Gallery on 24th April – 18.00-20.00pm, with refreshments provided and all welcome. The Old Fire Station is then open until 5th May. All other Venues are open on 2nd, 3rd and 4th May.

Look out for the signs on 25 venues around Remenham, Henley, Wargrave, Twyford, Shiplake, Bix and outer villages. (16 in the Henley area and 9 around Twyford.) Those venues are host to 150 artists including well known award winners and wonderful up and coming artists. There are many Open Working Studios covering painting, sculpture, pottery, jewellery, glass, photography, china and textiles.

Venues include our own Allan Henderson's Studio on Remenham Hill, and Local Artists at The Old Smythy at Upper Culham; Art in the Garden at The Big Plant Nursery, Twford; Lady Sew and Sew off the Reading Rd. Also, do visit Buratta's at the Royal Oak, Ruscombe, a good stop for lunch.

We have many visitors who try to visit all the studios over the bank holiday or just dip in and out. It's a great outing for the family/friends/visitors as there is something for everyone, young and old.

The Henley Arts Trail Map is available online and will be available at various locations.

There is information about all the different venues and artists on the colourful and informative website - www.henleyartstrail.com. You can also follow it on Facebook, Twitter or Pinterest.

Happy Trailing!

Editor's Note: Jenny Law is one of the local artists who exhibits at The Old Smythy, as is her husband David.

THE OXFORD & CAMBRIDGE HENLEY BOAT RACES

The Henley Boat Races take place on Easter Day, Sunday 5 April, this year, weather permitting. Although the main race, between the women's Blue Boats, is now taking place on the traditional men's course in London, on the following weekend, the races between other Oxford and Cambridge crews are still taking place in Henley.

To raise funds for St Nicholas we shall be serving refreshments in Old Blades' garden by the towpath.

We would much appreciate donations of cakes and to assist with serving. Please let me know if you can spare an hour or so to help with this annual event that gives us such a great opportunity to raise funds for our lovely church. Many thanks.

THE HENLEY BOAT RACES - PARKING IN REMENHAM LANE

The organisers of the Oxford and Cambridge Henley Boat Races have asked me to put something in the newsletter about parking in Remenham Lane on race day, which this year falls on Easter Day.

Although the main women's boat race will now be on the same course and day as the men's Boat Race (a week later), there will continue to be a number of races at Henley, and these attract many visitors. Permission has been given by Wokingham to putting No Parking cones in the lane and around the church, as in previous years, and this is to help the residents not the organisers. Unfortunately, for some reason, some residents apparently didn't like it last year and they criticised the organisers and removed the cones (which had to be paid for).

Fewer cones will be put out this year, but the organisers propose to put cones round the church in order that church goers can park there - they should simply move the cones aside. As it is Easter Day this seems to be a good suggestion.

If you are unhappy about any of this please let me know and I will discuss it further with the organisers and the Parish Council at the next meeting on 10 March.

Please also see the above notice about the Henley Boat Race teas (to raise money for the church).

GOOD NEIGHBOURS STOP ROGUE TRADERS!

Are you a good neighbour? Do you want to protect vulnerable residents from rogue traders?

Signs an unwanted doorstep caller is visiting a neighbour:

- Traders have been cold calling in the area
- A builder's van is parked nearby, particularly one that doesn't include a company name or contact details
- Building or maintenance work on your neighbour's garden or house starts unexpectedly
- Poor quality work is visible on the roof, driveway, or property
- Your neighbour appears anxious or distressed
- Your neighbour visits the bank, building society, or post office more frequently, particularly if they are accompanied by a trader

What can I do?

- ✓ Ask your neighbour in private - in person or on the phone - if things are OK
- ✓ If they are displeased, suggest calling a relative or carer on their behalf
- ✓ Note any vehicle registration numbers
- ✓ Keep hold of any flyers you have received through your door
- ✓ Ask if the trader has left any paperwork and put it in a clean food bag
- ✓ If you suspect a crime, call the Citizens Advice consumer helpline on 03454 04 05 06 or your local trading standards office
- ✓ If the situation with the trader becomes volatile, call the police

For more information, contact your local trading standards service or Citizens Advice Bureau or visit www.tradingstandards.gov.uk/ncwinfo
