

CODE OF CONDUCT FOR COUNCILLORS Remenham Parish Council (RPC)

1. Introduction

This Code of Conduct applies to Councillors and Co-opted Members whenever they are acting as a Member or as a representative of Remenham Parish Council or when they claim to act or give the impression of acting as a representative of the Council.

It does not apply to when the Councillor or Co-opted Member is acting in a private capacity.

When carrying out their public role, Councillors and Co-opted Members should always have regard to the seven principles of public life. These are: selflessness, integrity, objectivity, accountability, openness, honesty and leadership. Councillors and Co-opted Members should also read the Code of Conduct together with the Member/Officer Protocol and other sections of the Council's Constitution relating to ethical and financial probity (if applicable).

Any person may make a complaint if a Councillor or Co-opted Member does not act in accordance with this Code. The Local Government Ombudsmen may also regard a breach of the Code as incompatible with good administration, and may make a finding of maladministration by the Council in some circumstances. It is the Councillor and Co-opted Member's sole responsibility to comply with the Code.

A Members' Interest form is provided by the Parish Clerk to register interests. He or she will then forward it to Wokingham Borough Council's Monitoring Officer, who has a statutory duty to establish and maintain a register of interests of Members. It should be noted that the form will be published on Wokingham Borough Council's website. When a Councillor or Co-opted Member declares an interest at a meeting of the Council, they should be aware that this will be noted in the Minutes of the Meeting, which is a public document.

If any Councillor or Co-opted Member is unsure about any part of the Code of Conduct, they are urged to seek advice from the Parish Clerk

There are three areas to the Code of Conduct:

- 1 Rules about registration of Disclosable Pecuniary Interests and Personal Interests with Wokingham Borough Council's Monitoring Officer using the Members Interest Form (rule 2.3)
- 2 Rules about declaring interests in meetings where items on the agenda conflict with those interests (rules 4, 5 and 6)
- 3 Rules about general behaviour (see rule 8)

2. Interpretation

- “Co-opted Member” means a person who is a member of any committee or sub-committee of the Council or is a member of and represents the authority on any joint committee of the Council and who is entitled to vote on any question which falls to be decided at any committee or sub-committee.
- “Councillor” means a Member or Co-opted Member of this Council.
- “Meeting” means any meeting of:
 - a) the Council;
 - b) the Executive of the Council, including when making an Individual Executive Decision;
 - c) any of the Council’s or the Executive’s committees, sub-committees, joint-committees, joint sub-committees, or area committees;
- “Member” includes a co-opted Member and an appointed Member of this Council

Within 28 days of this Code being adopted by the Council, OR the Councillor’s election, OR the Co-opted Member’s appointment (whichever is later) Councillors must register with Wokingham Borough Council’s Monitoring Officer the interests which fall within the categories set out in Appendices A and B.

6. Declaration of Prejudicial Interests at meetings

6.2 They should declare this as a Prejudicial Interest at the beginning of the meeting when asked to do so by the Chairman, or if not then, they must do so before the matter is discussed.

6.4 When the item is introduced at the meeting, Councillors may continue to attend the meeting but only for the purpose of making representations, answering questions or giving evidence provided that the public are also allowed to attend the meeting for the same purpose.

6.5 They must then leave the room before the matter is discussed or voted upon.

7. Dispensations

On request, the Parish Clerk may grant a Councillor a dispensation to participate in a discussion and/or vote on a matter at a meeting where they would otherwise not be allowed to if the Parish Clerk believes that the number of Councillors otherwise prohibited from taking part in the meeting would impede the transaction of the business; or it is in the interests of the inhabitants in the Council's area to allow the Councillor to take part or it is otherwise appropriate to grant a dispensation. The dispensation will last no longer than 4 years from the date of the dispensation.

8. Behaviour

8.6

Councillors must respect the impartiality of officers and not put undue pressure on them.

8.7

Councillors must not do anything which may cause their Council to breach any of the equality enactments (as defined in the Equality Act 2010).

Code For Declaring Interests at Meetings – FLOWCHART

Consider what the subject matter of the item is on the agenda at the meeting, which you are attending to participate in the decision making process....

Disclosable Pecuniary Interest

Does the subject matter¹ of the meeting relate to or affect any interest which you have registered, or should have registered, as a Disclosable Pecuniary Interest, listed in Appendix A in the Code of Conduct

NO :	You do not have a Disclosable Pecuniary Interest. You must now consider whether you have a Personal Interest, and if so whether you have Prejudicial Interest (see below)	YES :	You must declare your Disclosable Pecuniary Interest at the beginning of the meeting when asked to do so by the Chairman or Mayor, or if not then, before the matter is discussed or voted upon regardless of whether the Disclosable Pecuniary Interest is registered on your Members Interest form. You may then attend the meeting when the subject matter is presented by the Officer, but only for the purpose of making representations, answering questions or giving evidence provided that the public are also allowed to attend the meeting for the same purpose. You must then leave the room before the matter is discussed or voted upon. ²

Personal Interest

Does the subject matter of the meeting relate to or affect any interest which you have registered, or should have registered as Personal Interest, listed in Appendix B in the Code of Conduct OR does the subject matter of the meeting relate to or affect a financial interest of you, a friend, relative or a close associate?³

¹ The subject matter which you are voting on must directly impact on your interest in order for it to be relevant to it. For example, if the subject matter is to grant money to a school, and you are a teacher there, this would not affect any of your Disclosable Pecuniary interests. It is likely however be a personal interest.

² It is potentially a criminal offence not to declare a Disclosable Pecuniary Interest in a meeting see s34 Localism Act 2011

³ A 'close associate' means someone with whom you have a direct personal relationship with, not an acquaintance, or someone you are on 'nodding' terms with, or someone that you only associate with as a Member of the same group as you

NO :	You do not have a personal interest. You can participate in the discussion at the meeting and vote	YES :	You must disclose the existence and nature of your personal interest, whether or not the personal interest has been noted on your Members Interest form. You must now also consider whether you have a Prejudicial Interest.

Prejudicial Interest

Does the subject matter affect your personal interest more than the majority of people in the area affected by the decision AND would a reasonable member of the public think that the Councillors view of the public interest would be adversely affected?⁴

NO :	You do not have a prejudicial interest, so after declaring a personal interest, you may participate in the discussion at the meeting and vote.	YES :	You must declare this as a Prejudicial interest at the beginning of the meeting at the same time as declaring a Personal interest, as described above. You may then attend the meeting when the subject matter is presented by the Officer, but only for the purpose of making representations, answering questions or giving evidence provided that the public are also allowed to attend the meeting for the same purpose. You must then leave the room before the matter is discussed or voted upon
------	--	-------	--

⁴ For example, you are voting on whether to allow free bus fares for the over 60s. You yourself are over 60 and will benefit from a free bus pass. However, the decision does not affect you personally any more than the other over 60's in Wokingham Borough, and it is unlikely that a reasonable member of the public would consider that your view of the public interest would be adversely affected. You do not have a Prejudicial interest.
