FROM THE EDITOR

The most important event in the parish shortly is of course the Thespians' production (but I would say that wouldn't !!). Tickets are sold out for two of the three nights and going fast for the third. Do come if you can, to be entertained by some of your friends in the community (sometimes inadvertently).

Please also note the advance notice for the Beetle Drive (18 May) and Quiz Night (16 November) - both are always very popular so put the dates in your diaries now and sign up as soon as you can.

The Parish Council needs two new members, so do find out more and put your names forward if you'd like to be involved (see pages 6 to 8).

The Upper Churchyard working party is doing a fantastic job - do join in (first Saturday of the month), and/or join the whole parish Annual Litter Pick on Sunday 24 March (page 14).

Please also see details of the dog and puppy training classes in the Hall (pages 12-13) - these are our most regular and very valued users of the Hall, and vital for all new (or not so new) dog owners).

NEWS FROM ST NICHOLAS

Dear All,

This is a quiet time of the year for the church with Ash Wednesday marking the beginning of Lent. We are looking forward to Easter and Spring...hopefully it will stop raining by then!

Please note that the Service on Easter Day is at the later time of 11.30am rather than the usual 11.15am as there is a confirmation service at St Mary's beforehand.

The Upper Churchyard working party has continued meeting on the first Saturday of the month for 2 hours from 10am. Thank you to everyone who has helped. All of your efforts are paying dividends. Each month we manage to fill up a huge skip with grass, trees, branches, weeds etc.

The working party is entirely voluntary so please come along whenever you can and please bring tools!

John Laing - Churchwarden

FROM THE RECTOR

Dear Remenham friends,

For this edition of the Remenham Newsletter I'm going to depart from my usual custom of writing something related to the Church's calendar, and instead I'd like to tell you about what I did last week.

One of the many charity roles that comes with being the Rector of Henley and Remenham is that of Chaplain to the Henley Sea Cadets. For me this has mostly been about helping on the Unit Management Committee, but over time I've become more interested in the cadets and more impressed by what they do. One of my daughters is now a cadet, and I am keen to get more involved. So last week I drove down to HMS Raleigh, a Royal Navy shore establishment, for a training course for Sea Cadet Chaplains.

I've never been on any sort of military base before, and it was an interesting experience. We were accommodated in the wardroom alongside naval officers, and we had the privilege of mingling with them and sharing conversations about our respective vocations: at a gathering of priests and sailors, stories and drinks will both tend to flow freely... I got to meet other Sea Cadet Chaplains, some of whom were themselves veterans of the Royal Navy, and others who were in the Cadets as children.

Many of you will know that the Henley Sea Cadets Unit is in fact on the Remenham side of the river. And some of you will have seen recently in the Henley Standard that there has been a change in the leadership on the management side, with Phil Fletcher standing down as chair after many years of service, and Andrew Stacey, recently retired from the Royal Navy, taking the helm. We are seeking to renew our engagement with the local community, and there are many ways to get involved. I'm always happy to chat to anyone who is interested in finding out more about the Cadets.

And for those of you who are the praying kind, please do remember that although we do not feel ourselves to be at war, our sailors are putting themselves in harms way at this time off the coast of Yemen to protect international shipping. Let's be grateful for all the brave men and women who are willing to defend this nation and all that it stands for in these challenging and uncertain times.

With my prayers,

Fr Jeremy

NOTES FROM REMENHAM PARISH COUNCIL

February 2024

The world does seem to be spinning faster these days. Not only is our newsletter ready to go yet again, the RPC update also has to be submitted. All somewhat reminiscent of school / university project deadlines. I wasn't very good at those either!

But here we are moving out of what must have been one of the wettest Februarys on record. Despite the rain on saturated ground and the resultant flooding again our poor gardens are being tricked into thinking Spring has arrived and the lawns already need a trim to stay in shape (Before you write...I do recognise not everyone is as obsessive about short grass as I am)

What I would like everyone to be obsessive about is in helping the Parish Council meet its objective of delivering the optimal environment for our Parishioners.

This month I can confirm that two of our councillors who have between them delivered close to 40 years' service have confirmed that the time for them to elegantly step down has arrived. Coincidentally but independently, John Merkel and Darrel Poulos have confirmed their resignations from the council. On behalf of their fellow councillors and hopefully our parishioners I would like to mark their departures with a massive vote of thanks for their excellent contributions over the years and tireless service. They have each been model councillors who remain respected and will be sorely missed.

Thankfully they were each kind enough to forewarn us of their intentions as mentioned in the last newsletter so we are already in the happy position of having two declared candidates for the current vacancies. We have formally advertised the two positions on the website and Parish noticeboard and please take this note as the final invitation to consider whether as a parishioner you would like to add your name to the current list. It is not too late to be considered and the notices will give advice on how to apply. (See also page 8, Editor)

Your council can only be effective with the support of volunteer councillors alongside an engaged parishioner base.

We really do encourage attendance at Parish meetings from any and all parishioners. Coming along as a guest is a great way to contribute and help us stay on track.

A good example is that shown by David Cook who has raised the question of how we may improve the impact and environment on the approach to Henley Bridge. Following David's suggestions, the March meeting will discuss how we can make our side of the bridge a smarter, more welcoming scene for those arriving at the bridge. Do come along to input to the discussion.

Linda Ashwell has also raised an initiative to improve verge planting on the A4130 between the bus stop and Aston lane. Another enhancement for the parish.

We are still on the case to deliver improvements to the slipway at Ferry Lane . With the support of the Council, the Remenham Farm Association, ably led by Ron Emerson and Neil Brown are constructively engaging with the Wokingham Licencing committee to consider a cumulative Impact Policy designed to contain the escalation of major events in our already busy Parish.

We have declared support for the subtle lighting proposed for Henley Bridge by the 'Make Henley Shine' group.

We are talking to SSE about disconnecting our three old street lights as the cost has risen - but looking at replacement independent solar powered dusk-to-dawn street lights.

Add in a project to better record traffic movements and air quality within the Parish (data can be found for February on the website under Traffic Census) and there is a lot going on at the moment.

So in summary, your Council continues to work hard to ensure Remanham remains a very special place for residents and visitors alike. Please keep supporting us...we do appreciate engagement.

Fingers crossed for more clement weather, and enjoy the Spring.

Best wishes,

Bill Ronald

REMENHAM W.I.

January

It was after a busy committee meeting that the rains came in earnest and unfortunately Remenham WI had to cancel their meeting for the month, as roads around Henley were impassable. Members were looking forward to trying out various pieces of furniture while listening to hints on good posture from representatives from HSL. It is now hoped that this talk can be fitted into the calendar at a later stage in the year.

However, the Book Club did meet to discuss The Secret Shore by Liz Fenwick. The necessary map making of the rugged coasts of Cornwall and Normandy during WW2 opened a new chapter for many in this less well-known part of war preparations. It was well received and gained a 7/8 in their newly adopted scoring system. The book for this month is The People on Platform 5 by Claire Pooley.

February

The Remenham WI meeting this month incorporated the AGM. Members met at 1 p.m. to enjoy a delicious ploughman's lunch provided by the committee with a variety of superb homemade soups. As the meeting in January had had to be cancelled because of the flooding, it was a good opportunity to catch up on all the news! After coffee and mints, the business of the month began, which was followed by the AGM.

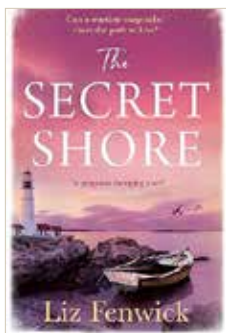

The Financial Statement was given by the Treasurer and approved and this was followed by the Annual Report from the Secretary, with a detailed resume of the events of the past year. The President then gave her address, in which she thanked all the committee members for their hard work and support, noting again all the events which had been held and monies raised for various charities throughout the year. Attention was drawn again, to the fact that although not a large branch, Remenham was certainly a very active one!

All the committee members were re-elected, with Daphne Austen as President, Judy Palmer as Vice-President, Irene Parker as Secretary and Anne Francis as Treasurer, Pat Sly, Jen Terry and Rosemary Pratt were also re-elected to the committee.

Beautiful pot plants were presented to Anne Francis, Irene Parker and Daphne Austen. Trophies for the year were also presented with Frances Plowman winning the Art Cup, Judy Palmer the Handicraft Cup and Photograph Frame, Daphne Austen the Best Bloom Shield and the cup for the most helpful member went to Caroline Leeming.

A week later, the Book Club met to discuss their latest read, The People on Platform 5 by Clare Pooley. If you are a train traveller, this may be just the book for you! Do you talk to strangers on the train and if so, what would happen? Do you make assumptions about your fellow travellers and give them nicknames? It proved to be a popular read with everyone, scoring an 8. The next book is Daughters of War by Dinah Jefferies. The story is set in the Dordogne in 1944 and follows the lives of the three sisters, Helene, Elise and Florence with tales of secrets and bravery in the darkness of war-torn France. It is the first book of a trilogy and looks to be another good read!

KATE'S K9 TRAINING

I'm Kate, a qualified veterinary nurse with over 25 years of experience working with animals. I setup Kate's K9 Training to help dogs and their owners to positively enjoy their lives together. I offer 1:2:1 and group training sessions around Henley and South-East Oxfordshire.

There are a number of different courses to choose from (and feel free to ring me for a chat if you're unsure which one most suits your needs):

Puppy Beginner

These classes are ideal for pups under 5 months of age that have had little or no formal obedience training and need to learn the basic commands. All training is positively reward based training. Maximum of 5 dogs per class – this allows me to work individually as needed so everyone gets the support they need.

Basic Training

These classes are for older puppies (20 weeks +), young rescue dogs or pups who have graduated from beginner classes. In these classes distance, duration and distraction training is added to the basic commands. These skills help you to successfully retain your puppy's attention and focus (and therefore safety) whilst the distractions of the real world pass by.

1:2:1 Puppy Training

If your puppy finds it difficult to focus in a class setting or you prefer training in the home environment, these classes are for you. We can cover all the basic commands along with time to discuss any particular problems you are experiencing like toilet training, jumping up, mouthing, to name a few! A minimum of 4 sessions is required to get you off to a good start.

1:2:1 Training

For dogs that do not respond well to a class setting or, a busy schedule prevents you from attending regular classes, 1:2:1 training can be tailored to meet your needs, even helping to address common problems such as lead pulling, recall etc. We teach you to train your dog so that you have the skills to build on your relationship. These sessions can be at home or at a mutually convenient public area.

Dog training, like much of life, is all about small, incremental improvements. I can help you learn great techniques and skills to successfully steer your dog into adulthood and that loving, family companion you dreamed of.

As well as being a Registered Veterinary Nurse, Kate holds the IMDT Level 3 Accreditation Qualification in Principles of Dog Training & Behaviour and Dog First Aid certification and has completed canine nutrition courses. To book your classes, please contact Kate at:
